MANY ARE INJURED IN SERIES OF RIOTS were clubbed and wholesale arrests were made. Vet. Plundelpha ears were wreeled and clashes were frequent between roters and the police. A motorman was probably fatally injured in a riot at Forty-second and Chestnut streets, when he was struck on the head by a brick. When the care were the street of the care with the care

Much Trouble Downtown Almost an entre day of continuous rioting, marked at times with conflicts between the police and the mobs in which pistol shots were freely exchanged, occurred pesterday in the downtown section of the city, resulting in injury to many of the police as well as the riotest and damage to many of the cars operstat.

sarrous attuin due to be constantly on duly in the anotherset exciton.

March Treashie Downtern and the particular of the control of the constantly of the control of the c

In the seuthern and northwest sections of the city of the bay of the city of the bay of the city of th team across in the path of the approaching runaway.

The galloping horse ran into the two patrol horses with great force, knocking both of them down. Sergeants Chobert, Duffy, Davis and Fenn were in command of the police detail, and a number of arrests were made, the prisoners being taken to the Central Station for a hearing.

the police were forced to fire their revolvers over the hoods of the crowd, and by a buller and wounded.

The shooting took place at Fifth street, and Gurard as how counded.

The shooting took place at Fifth street, and Gurard as how counded.

The shooting took place at Fifth street, and Gurard as how the street, and Gurard as how to consider the police risbed upon them. In one of these rols, the mob stormed a car and through the crowd, a detail of police-men were ordered to fire in the air. One of the short strink, I homas Kershaw, 30 years, of 114 Rider account; in the neckly and the street, and the short s a brick, his jaw and nose being broken. A moment later a bottle hit him on the head and he fell unconvicious to the street, breaking his right arm. He was alterward taken to the Pennevivana Hopital, where his condition is critical. Rote calls brought several details of policemen to the scene and a deperate battle enued between them and the root-

Policemen Arc Injured
Policemen Arc Injured
Policemen Arc Injured
Policemen Arc Injured
Policemen David Pearl and Mattin McDonald, of the Fifth and Race streets station, were so badly hurt by bricks and other missiles when a car they were guarding was attacked by a mob at Eighth and Comment of the Comment of the Scores of policemen were required to scatter the mob that had assembled. The car was wrecked and the few passengers aboard it fied in terror. An equality serrous was served and the few passengers aboard it fied in terror. An equality serrous that a plot was on foot to how up the bridge over the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad on the line of Woodland asenue at Satich street, the police dre justified of guards on the structthe police was received by the police from members of St. Clement's Bonana Cathowood-led acreue, who received anonymous letters directing them not to use the bridge.

The letters were turned over to the police and the number of guards me turned over to the postal authorities.

Collapses Under Sternta

Stricken with paralysis as a result of

Collapses Under Strain

Collapses Under Strain

Stricken with paralysis as a result of loss of sleep and the nervous strain he had leen under since the benning of the strike. Leutenant Hoseph McKniley, of ton, is critically ill at his residence, 5460 Vine street.

Leutenant McKniley was stricken during the alternoon at the East Girard of a large detail of men stationed in the territory. Loss of sleep, due to constant activity, began to tell upon him and the paralytic stroke he eustained was to that cause. The heutenant was taken home immediately.

Cars Collided

In a collision between two cross to that cause. The heutenant was taken home immediately.

Cars defined the collision between two cross a Fourth and Walnut street, carly are, of the Twelfith and Pine streets station, was hurled to the street, breaking his arm and receiving other severe inquiries. He was taken to the German Hill a rot at Twenty-ninth and Poplar street's act was wreeked and a number street's act